

Name: _____

Date: _____

America Becomes a World Power

Across

2. the act or process of incorporating a territory into an existing country or state
 3. War tactics used in the Spanish and Cuba war that wore out the soldiers
 9. U.S pineapple mogul who was elected "President" of Hawaii
 10. The treaty between the U.S and Spain that ended the war
 14. A disease carried by female mosquitoes
 16. U.S President who began imperialism
 18. An explosive device usually hidden in a concealed location
 19. A nonfiction literary piece that forms part of a publication

22. Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Head of the Rough Riders

23. the systematic publicizing of a given doctrine or of views expressing outlandish views or interests
 24. A king or queen in a government
 25. Journalism that exaggerates the news to make it more interesting

Down

1. Members of a U.S cavalry, organized by Roosevelt
 4. The last monarch of Hawaii
 5. U.S President who opposed annexation on Hawaii
 6. the policy of remaining focused on one's own country rather than becoming involved in the affairs of other countries
 7. A principle of U.S policy originated by president James Monroe

8. Political Comics made to show the opinion of the cartoonist

11. A caption, title, or summarizing words of a newspaper
 12. Navy Admeral
 13. Who wrote the article
 15. An article that expresses the opinion of the editor
 17. Title of a newspaper underline which is usually a tagline
 20. The expansion of a country by colonizing weaker ones
 21. A car-shaped, self-propelled underwater projectile launched from a ship and designed detonate on contact with its target