

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit: Edgar Allan Poe

Across

1. What is hatred?
4. What is The Fall of The House of Usher about?
6. What is the shape of the second cats marking?
9. Who is the author of all these pieces?
10. A room is?
11. What is a story?
16. From what point of view is The Fall of The House of Usher told in?
17. Why did Montresor kill Fortunato?
18. Does the narrator in The Black Cat get away with his crime?
20. What does a black cat symbolize back then?
22. Roderick's twin
23. What is the theme of The Raven?
25. Where does Montresor take Fortunato?

28. In The Black Cat, what does the narrator do that is so sinister?
33. What is Edgar Allan Poe the master at?
34. What type of rhyme is present in The Raven?
35. Is the narrator reliable in The Fall of The House of Usher?

Down

2. What does Fortunato like a lot?
3. Describe Fortunato
5. In The Fall of The House of Usher, what happens at the end?
7. Who is Lenore in The Raven?
8. What is The Cask Of Amontillado about?
12. Is the narrator reliable in The Cask Of Amontillado?
13. Is the narrator reliable in The Black Cat

14. What does The House of Usher refer to?

15. What literary device does this quote relate to, "vacant eye like windows."
19. What does the Raven Signify?
21. How did the narrator in The Black Cat kill the second cat?
24. Was Poe ever convicted of any crime?
26. Does Montresor get away with his crime?
27. How does Roderick get in touch with the narrator in The Fall of The House of Usher
29. In The Black Cat what causes the narrator to have a change in behavior?
30. How Does Poe already introduce the idea of alcohol in The Cask Of Amontillado?
31. How did the narrator in The Black Cat kill the first cat?
32. What is ironic about Fortunato?