

Jobs, Careers & Education

Across

1. balance between work and life
2. institution of higher learning which offers teaching and research facilities and awards a variety of bachelor's degrees, master's degrees and doctorates
8. institution of higher learning which offers training for specific careers, such as welding, culinary arts, plumbing, medical assisting, cosmetology, ect.
9. state of wealth, resources, and employment in a country
12. emotional breakdown
18. highest level of degree available
20. measure of position based on social economic factors
23. time for hobbies
25. financial aid provided on the terms that it will be repaid
26. financial aid given to a student of and institution of higher learning
28. term used to describe the vertically structured sequence of job positions
30. oversimplified of biased mental picture
31. ability or instinct
32. requires 60 hours of coursework, usually taking two years to complete
33. term used to describe a barrier preventing minorities and women from rising to positions of power

Down

3. institution of higher learning which offers bachelor's degrees in liberal arts, science, or both
4. way or condition n which a person lives
5. subject of specialization chosen by a student
6. activities falling outside of class
7. collection of past work used to document skills
10. skills needed to be effective in the workplace
11. relates to working in an office setting
13. relates to labor and working with your hands
14. program providing financial aid to a student of an institution of higher learning in exchange for employment services
15. trusted guide
16. advanced degree earned after completing a bachelor's degree
17. financial aid awarded towards a student
19. act of treating people differently
21. institution of higher learning which offers associate degrees
22. level to which someone is likely to gain employment and be successful in a career
24. requires 120 hours of coursework, usually taking two years to complete
27. mental and emotional well-being
29. period of reduced economic activity