

Lamb to the Slaughter

Across

2. Pleasantly calm and peacefully
4. To enjoy oneself
7. The murder who killed Patrick
14. Sickness at the stomach; loathing, Mary felt this after Patrick told her the shocking news
16. When someone acts strangely, such as Mary, they are called this
17. The feeling Mary felt when Patrick told her the news at the beginning of the story
18. Strictly observant of an appointed or regular time; not late; describes Patrick at the beginning of the story
19. The person Mary used as an alibi to help her not get caught after she killed her husband
20. Calm and free of disturbance; how the house was before Patrick got home

Down

1. Extreme distress or sorrow, describes the murder of Patrick
3. Behavior involving physical force intended to hurt, damage, or killing someone
5. Allowing light, semitransparent
6. Completely confused; perplexed
8. Irrational from fear or shock
9. Mary acts _____ after killing her husband, not upset or scared
10. The victim
11. The murder weapon
12. Desperate or wild with fear; the way Mary acted after she saw her husband dead
13. afraid; fearful, such as Mary was before her husband told her something very serious
15. Abounding in, enjoying; Mary describes her husband coming home as a what part of her day

