

Jobs, Careers, & Education: Taylor Hawkins & Sara Roberts

Across

1. Financial aid awarded to a student, as for the purpose of attending an institution of higher learning.
6. Emotional, mental, and physical exhaustion caused by overloading.
7. Oversimplified or biased mental picture which characterizes a person or group of people.
12. Ongoing, voluntary pursuit of knowledge.
16. State of wealth, resources, and employment in a country or region; has a lot of influence on the job market and workforce.
20. Financial aid provided on the terms it will be repaid.
21. Requires 120 hours of coursework, usually taking four years to complete.
23. Institution of higher learning which offers training for specific careers.
25. Institution of higher learning which offers bachelor's degrees in liberal arts, science, or both.
27. Subject of specialization chosen by a student of an institution of higher learning.
28. Group of similar occupations and industries.

29. Institution of a higher learning which offers associate degrees; less expensive than universities and colleges.
30. Requires 60 hours of coursework, usually taking two years to complete.
31. Measure of a position based on social and economic factors.

32. Advanced degree earned after completing a bachelor's degree; requires at least an additional 30 hours of coursework.

- Down
2. Institution of higher learning which offers teaching and research facilities and awards a variety of degrees.
3. Collection of past work used to document skills and achievements.
4. Balance between work and personal responsibilities.
5. Mental and emotional well-being of a person or group.
8. Relates to working in an office setting.
9. Relates to labor and working with your hands.
10. Financial aid given to a student of an institution of a higher learning by the federal government.

11. Skills needed to be effective in any job market and workplace.
13. Program providing financial aid to a student of an institution of a higher learning in exchange for employment services.
14. Ability or instinct to act or take charge independently.
15. Highest level of degree available; requires between 90 and 120 additional hours of coursework.
17. Period of reduced economic activity; affects the job market and unemployment.
18. Trusted guide or counselor who provides information, advice, and support.
19. Act of treating people differently based solely on physical characteristics.
22. Level to which someone is likely to gain employment and be successful in a career.
24. Way or condition in which a person lives; reflect a person's values, morals, culture, and financial situation.
26. Time for hobbies, ease, and relaxation.

Word Bank

Scholarship	Community College	Doctoral Degree	Stereotype	Blue-collar Career
Lifelong Learning	Initiative	Associate Degree	Master's Degree	Career Cluster
University	Loan	Leisure	Technical School	Morale
Portfolio	Burnout	Mentor	Work-study Program	Recession
Employability	Economy	White-collar Career	Grant	Employability Skills
Bachelor's Degrees	College	Lifestyle	Discrimination	Socioeconomic Status
Major	Work-life Balance			