Name:	Date:
-------	-------

Swine Terms

Across

- 4. After a sow or gilt has taken to a pregnancy she is considered settled
- 6. The body of a pig after it has been dressed out (butchered)
- 7. All the offspring from a single farrowing
- 9. Male hog or pig with intact testicles
- 12. A piglet that is born dead, but hasn't fully developed
- 15. To give birth to piglets
- 16. A herd or group of swine
- 17. Feeding a pig out to reach market weight

- 19. Young females that have not yet produced a litter
- 20. Female pig which has farrowed at least once
- 21. A pig between birth and weaning
- 22. The number of litters a sow has carried (including current pregnancy)
- 23. The number of sows that conceive to service

Down

- 1. First milk produced by the sow
- 2. Small or weak pig in a litter
- 3. Removing young from their mother

- 5. The two teeth on either side of the jaw that look like canine teeth
- 8. When a sow or gilt is ready to be serviced
- 10. A drug used to cause uterine contractions in sows and/or stimulate milk production
- 11. The underside or belly of a sow
- 13. Castrated Male
- 14. The first offspring from the crossbreeding of two pure-bred pigs from different breeds
- 18. Animal weighing between 40 and 220 lbs; being fed for slaughter