

Date: _____

[illegible]

3. If a radiograph appears too dark you need to increase or decrease the focal distance

10. The only variables that can be changed on dental radiograph machines are the time of exposure and

12. An unerrupted tooth can cause a

1. To identify the mandible, we look for the
2. One way to tell if a tooth is dead or not is by the size of the

5. The line along the gumline on teeth that is darker than the rest of the tooth is

7. If a radiograph appears too dark then you need to increase or decrease exposure time

9. The numbering system for teeth is called