Internet Vocabulary

Across

5. (DNS) translated domain names into IP addresses.

6. Loads a specific page, separated by a /.

7. Maximum data transfer rate of a network or Internet connection. It measures how much data can be sent over a specific connection in a given amount of time.

11. String of characters after the path, begins with a ?

12. Type of internet service that connects wirelessly through mobile phone services.

13. Appears after the path, tells browser to load a specific part of the page usually begins with a #.

14. Device that enables a computer to transmit data, either hard wired or wireless, to the internet.

15. Unit of data that is routed between an origin and destination.

16. Device that forwards data packets along networks. It is connected to at least two networks either LANs or WANs.

18. Most URLs begin with http or https.

20. Provides internet access, such as XFINITY.

Down

1. A software application used to locate and display web pages.

2. Device used to access the internet, computer, tablet, phone, or printer.

3. Fast data transfer speeds, always connected and can transmit multiple signals simultaneously.

4. A program that searches for and identifies items in a database that correspond to keywords or characters specified by the user, used especially for finding particular sites on the World Wide Web.

8. Usually identifies the organization in a URL.

9. To work from home, making use of the internet, e-mail, and the telephone.

10. Acts as a host or network interface identification and location addressing.

17. Commercial transactions conducted electronically online.

19. Messages distributed by electronic means from one computer user to one or more recipients via a network.