

Name: _____

Date: _____

1984 George Orwell

Across

1. The limiting new language that eliminates the ability to express emotions or ideas deemed unwanted by the Party.

4. Person who plotted against the government along with other accomplices.

7. The newspaper that the protagonist must revise to make the party always correct.

10. The political party that the government of Oceania is founded upon.

11. Main character

17. The unbearable thing for the protagonist.

18. The embodiment of the oppressive system that the citizens of Oceania follow and love.

19. Middle social class

20. The secret underground organization of rebels against the oppressive system.

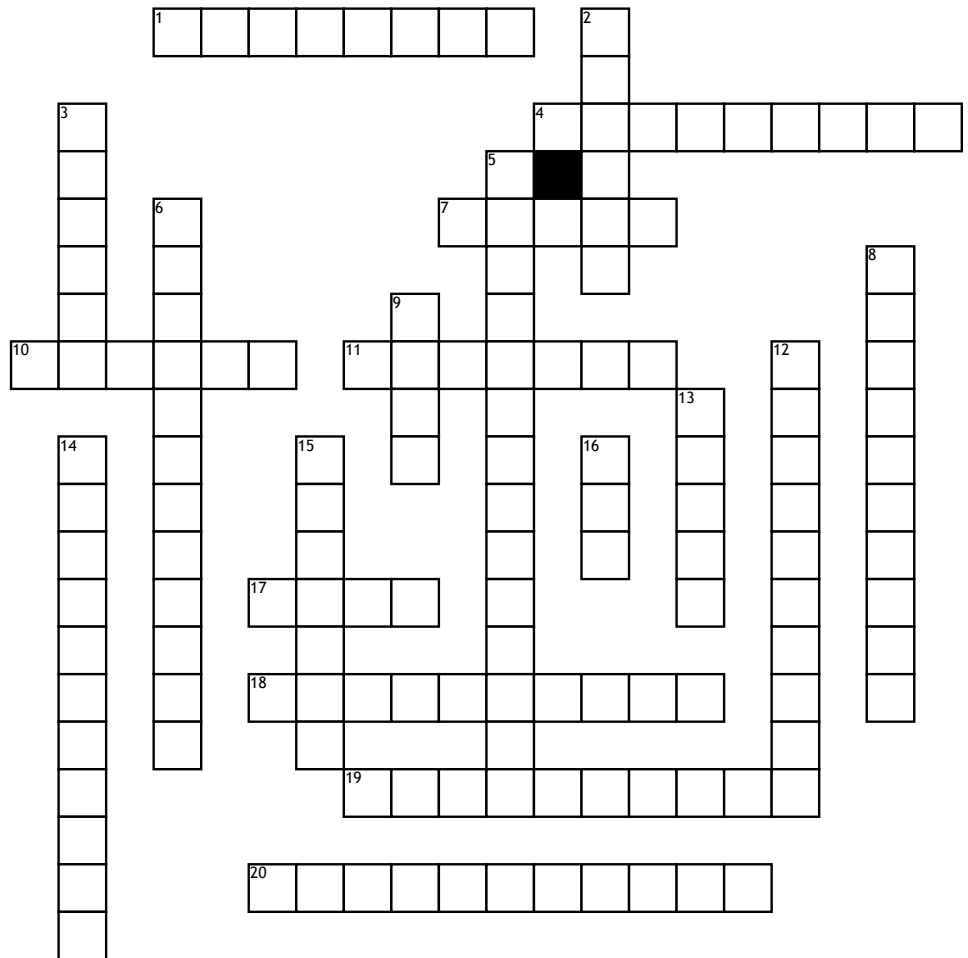

Down

2. Lowest social class

3. The man that cured the protagonist of his insanity.

5. Where the protagonist is held captive.

6. The cafe the protagonist occupies after he is reintegrated into society

8. The device used to monitor everyone at all times

9. What Winston must believe four plus four equals to be cured of his insanity

12. Highest social class

13. Main character's lover

14. The ability to hold two contradicting beliefs as true at the same time.

15. What Oceania has ALWAYS been at war with.

16. The worst room in the Ministry of Love.

