

The Age of Exploration

- Across
- persuaded the king of Spain to finance his voyage to Asia through the western hemisphere
 - offspring of Africans and Europeans
 - a set of principles that dominated society
 - explored the New England coastline of the Americas for England
 - a settlement of people living in a new territory, linked to a parent country
 - large agricultural estates
 - pulled into the slave trade
 - went around the cape and cut across the Indian ocean to the coast of India
 - Aztec monarch
 - connected Europe, Asia, and Africa
 - Spanish conqueror of Mexico
 - in the 1500's Portugal came to dominate this land
 - individuals with firearms, organizational skills, and determination that led to success
 - his letters described the land he saw led to the use of the name America
 - believed he could reach Asia by sailing west instead of east around Africa
 - Spanish and Portuguese officials who had been born in Europe
 - the middle portion of the triangular trade route

- Down
- the right of landowners to use native Americans as laborers
 - the difference in value between what a nation imports and what it exports
 - landed on the pacific coast of south America with 180 men
 - the exchange of plants and animals between Europe and Asia
 - a thriving spice trade port
 - "so great is the corruption that our country is being completely depopulated"
 - took the lead in European exploration
 - Christopher Columbus explored these coastlines
 - offspring of Europeans and Native Americans
 - descendants of Europeans born in Latin America
 - payments