

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hurricane Vocabulary

Across

- 9. The movement of air, usually in a particular direction.
- 10. A tropical storm with violent winds.
- 11. The calm part at the center of a hurricane.
- 12. A rise in sea level that occurs during a tropical storm.
- 13. A cloud and precipitation structure associated with an area of rainfall which is significantly longer in width.

Down

- 1. When the pressure in the atmosphere is above average.
- 2. Classifies hurricanes and puts them into five different categories.
- 3. An announcement that hurricane conditions are expected within the specified area, the announcement is made 36 hours in advance.
- 4. The solid or almost solid part of rain in a hurricane that becomes heavier once it gets closer to the eye.
- 5. A statement that is issued 48 hours in advance, of anticipation of a tropical storm.
- 6. An intense low-pressure wind that forms over oceans with high winds of hurricane force.
- 7. When the pressure in the atmosphere is below average.
- 8. The area immediately outside the eye of a hurricane, has heavy rainfall, tall clouds, and high winds.