

Name: _____ Date: _____

Bloodborne Pathogens/Hand Hygiene

Across

2. Called parenterally transmitted non A non B hepatitis
 5. Procedures that remove or kill microorganisms
 9. Causes infection with Hepatitis B virus
 12. A stage in an infectious disease in which the host carries the infectious agent, no symptoms
 13. Microorganisms that colonize on skin and become permanent residents

14. Leukocytes (white blood cells) found in large numbers in lymphoid tissues that contribute to immunity
 15. When the hands contain no visible soil use

Down

1. Microorganisms that are present under certain conditions for certain lengths of time
 3. Disease producing microorganisms that are spread by contact with blood or other bodily fluids from an infected person

4. Infectious diseases that are spread through contact with infected blood or bodily fluids
 6. An enveloped DNA virus that infects/multiplies in human liver cells
 7. Through the skin transmission
 8. Fecal-oral route type of hepatitis
 10. Terminal phase of HIV
 11. This disease progresses to Aids, destroys immune system

Word Bank

Hepatitis D	HIV	Resident flora	Hepatitis C
Transient flora	Hand hygiene	Hep A Hep E	Lymphocytes
Bloodborne pathogens	Hepatitis B	Bloodborne diseases	Carrier state
Percutaneous	Alcohol based hand rub	Aids	