

Rhetorical Devices

Across

- 6. speakers/writers intend to express meanings of words differently than their literal meanings
- 7. A sentence begins and ends with the same word/clause
- 10. Speaker, Audience, Subject
- 11. When an author goes back and corrects a statement they just said

Down

- 1. The last word or phrase is repeated in various sentences

- 2. a basis of mutual interest or agreement that's found in the course of an argument

- 3. An inversion of the normal order of words, especially for the sake of emphasis

- 4. The use of a word in a way that is not correct

- 5. A statement of what has already been covered and what will be said next

- 8. Syllogism (logical argument) in which the major premise is unstated but meant to be understood

- 9. A figure of speech in which a part is made to represent the whole or vice versa