

Dealing with Family Crises

Across

4. Compulsive ___ often follows the path of winning, losing, and chasing.
 5. Chasing is a gambler's attempts to win back what he/she has _____.
 8. Crucial time or event that cause change in a person's life
 9. A family's ___ from one town to another due to job change or other reason can be a crisis.
 12. Younger rape victims are more likely to be raped by ___ or acquaintances.
 15. Failing to provide sufficient food, clothing, shelter, supervision, etc.
 17. If a friend has mentioned suicide, you should suggest he/she seek professional ____.

Word Bank

- | | | | | | |
|-----------------|-----------|--------------|--------------|-----------|-------------|
| help | hazard | anger | intervention | hotlines | sexualabuse |
| physicalneglect | gambling | enabler | move | support | emotional |
| crisis | abusive | codependency | abuse | marijuana | physical |
| lost | relatives | children | | | |

18. An abused child is more apt to grow up to become an ___ parent.

19. It has been thought that ___ is a gateway drug that most abusers begin their drug use with.
 20. Frustration and ___ are at the core of most domestic violence.
 21. Unhealthy family behaviors developed to survive the pain and emotional stress.

Down

1. Someone who knowingly acts in ways that contribute to an addict's drug use.
 2. In a family crisis, ___ usually want to help their parents.
 3. When parents continually have impossible expectations of their children and then criticize when not reached is emotional ____.

6. Failure to provide love and affection to a child is ___ neglect.

7. Hitting, pushing, slapping, etc. a person are forms of ___ abuse.
 10. Means of forcing an addict to honestly look at his or her behavior.
 11. If your car stalls, you should stay in your care and turn on the ___ lights.
 13. Telephone ___ are accessible any time day or night.
 14. Forcing a person to engage in sexual activities.
 16. ___ groups are made up of people who have experienced similar situations.