

Name: _____ Date: _____

Archetypes of Shrek

Across

2. Dragon appears at first as an evil figure, especially with the remains of the knights, but Donkey saves her and converts her to good

3. Donkey is considered a _____ to Shrek while on their journey

5. Name the archetype: The castle is dark to represent evil, Fiona is first seen in a ray of light, and as soon as they escape, they emerge into daytime since they've escaped evil

9. Lord Farquard is seen wearing _____, Showing the sacrifice he is willing to make to find a perfect princess to marry.

10. Shrek and donkey point out images in the sky made of _____ representing guidance, in this scene Shrek is guided to do the right thing, with regards to saving Fiona

13. Shrek and Donkey vs. the dragon

14. Shrek and Donkey face their fears and conquer the dragon, finding Fiona to accomplish their task of the _____

15. Donkey is considered a _____

16. Lord Farquard banishes all of the fairy tale creatures from his land. This character would be considered what archetype?

Down

1. Donkey and the Dragon's love is considered what archetype?

4. The quest is to find and _____ Fiona

6. Shrek is a _____ ogre which suggests he is envious.

7. To get his swamp back from the fairy tale creatures is the _____

8. Who is considered the "Damsel in Distress"?

11. Glowing embers and fire are shown to be the habitat of the dragon

12. Shrek fighting off the fire breathing dragon is considered a _____