

Careers in Child Care

Across

5. Assist in placing children needing parents with adoptive parents that are looking for children.

6. Assists pediatricians by assessing a patient's needs and providing initial patient care.

9. A person (typically a woman) trained to assist women in childbirth.

14. Provide a quality, caring and supportive child care program that addresses their unique child care needs.

16. The voice of child welfare in Ontario for over 100 years, enhancing and promoting the welfare and well-being of children, youth and families.

17. Someone who studies the mental, social and emotional development of children.

18. A person, typically a woman, employed to care for a child in its own home.

19. Transport children to and from school.

20. A type of early childhood educator who instructs children from 2 to age 4.

Down

1. Help children to make sense of difficult life experiences or complex psychological issues through the activity of play.

2. Provide much needed instructional support to classroom teachers and students.

3. Instruct students in secondary public or private schools in one or more subjects at the secondary level, such as English, mathematics, or social studies.

4. Interacting with children and organizing their activities on a day-to-day basis

7. Duties include selecting materials for the children's collection, monitoring behavior of children, maintaining collection, and training staff.

8. Specialize in the proper nutritional care of infants and young active pre-adolescent youth.

10. The art/practice of taking and processing photographs of children.

11. Teaching academics to children who are in the hospital either short-term or long-term for various illnesses and conditions.

12. A profession concerned with helping individuals, families, groups and communities to enhance their individual and collective well-being.

13. Help clients with divorces, guardianships, prenuptial agreements, adoptions, parental rights and custody.

15. A person trained to care for the sick or infirm, especially in a hospital.