New Testament Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. What is the name of the books that eventually replaced scrolls (Article 2)?

4. The connections of individual doctrines with the whole of revelation (Article 7).

7. The gift of the Holy Spirit that helped humans begin to write biblical books (Article 1).

12. What is the abbreviation for the Book of James (Catholic Study Bible)?

15. The study of Christianity is also known as _____ (Introduction PowerPoint).

17. God's self-communication where He reveals the mystery of his plan (Article 1).

19. The doctrine that says scriptures are free of error (Article 1).

20. The sense of Scripture that is what the words actually mean (Article 7).

22. The approach to Biblical interpretation that pays attention to the context to understand all senses of Scripture (Article 7).

23. The Church's teaching office, that consists of all bishops (Article 1).

24. The field of study that biblical exegetes study is called _____ (Article 7).

25. The Abbreviation for the Book of Jude is _____ (Catholic Study Bible).

Down

1. The last book of the New Testament.

3. Col is the abbreviation for which book in the New Testament (Catholic Study Bible).

5. Refers to the process of passing on the Gospel message (Article 1).

6. What word means "to become flesh" in Latin (Article 8)?

8. The _____ are the literal and spiritual senses (Article 7).

9. An agreement between humans or between God and a human, where mutual commitments are made (Article 2).

10. Which book comes first: 1 John or 2 Peter?

11. Eph is the abbreviation for which New Testament book (Catholic Study Bible)?

13. The _____ fulfils the promises of God made in the Old Testament (Article 2).

14. The sense of Scripture where the Church encourages to act based on the information we learn in Scripture (Article 7).

16. Jesus revealed himself through this with His chosen people (Article 1).

18. The people who decided which written scriptures would be included in the Bible (Article 2).

21. A biblical scholar who is attempting to interpret biblical text (Article 7).