

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Canterbury Tales Crossword

Across

1. In Chaucer's time the word "franklin" means what?
2. Chaucer added that The Wife of Bath had a gap in-between her teeth because it represented...
4. The Squire A vain, lusty young man and a candidate for _____ he can sing, write poetry, and ride a horse very well, and considers himself a lady's man?
8. The Shipman A huge, uncouth man who can steer a ship but _____ on his horse?
13. Chaucer mentioned the sore on the cook's leg to show that they weren't...
14. The Man of Law is one of the high justices of the court. He is cautious, suspicious, and wise, and one of the more _____ men among the pilgrims?
15. The summoner has this disease on his face.

16. Although the Physician was great at helping and healing others, he was struggling in his _____ health.
17. The Parson is different from the Monk and Friar because he's loyal to the church and practices what he...
18. The monk chose to ride on a small pony to show..
19. The Franklin A large and wealthy landowner who enjoys fine living and good _____?
20. Pardoner is an intellect and uses advanced _____ means to gain his objective. Although he is not a good person, he can preach a good sermon?

Down

3. Chaucer added that the knight was part of the Crusades because it was becoming...
5. Prioress has precise manners, eats as an aristocrat would, and wears a gold _____ with "Love conquers all" inscribed in Latin?

6. The Reeve A very old and _____ man who was once a carpenter. He resents the Miller's tale about a stupid old carpenter?
7. These made merchants good money.
9. The Clerk, a sincere, devout student at Oxford University who loves learning and is _____ by all the pilgrims?
10. The Miller, a drunken, brash, and vulgar man who rudely interrupts the Host, demands that his tale be next, and warns everyone that his tale about a _____ will be vulgar because it is true?
11. Despite the Manciple's lack of education, it was ironic that he was in charge of getting provisions for court and college and also fed thirty...
12. The Host promises to keep everyone happy, be their guide and arbiter in disputes, and _____ the tales?