Name:	Date:

Vocab Unit 8

Across

- 1. a handcuff, anything that chains or confines; to chain or restrain
- 5. the smallest possible amount; the lowest permissible or possible
- 7. tightly drawn, tense; neat, in good order
- 13. unpaid or overdue debts; an unfinished duty
- 15. the beginning , start (especially of something violent and destructive) an attack or assault
- 16. good-humored , high in spirits ;merry

- 17. a pattern, typically in the form of metal, wood or plastic; something that is used as a model to imitate
- 18. warlike ,fond of fighting ; related to war , the army or military life
- 19. something new, a change; the act of introducing a new method, idea, device, etc.
- 20. something that divides such as a wall); the act of dividing something into parts or sections; to divide or subdivide into parts or shares

Down

- 2. appearing evil or dangerous; threatening evil or harm
- 3. blocked so that nothing can go through

- 4. cranky , ill-tempered ; full of odd whims
- 6. quick and skillful in movement, agile; clever
- 8. to find and bring back, get back; to put right, make good
- 9. likely to spoil or decay
- 10. not movable; not moving
- 11. to shrink back or hide in fear or submissiveness
- 12. a steep narrow waterfall; something falling or rushing forth in quantity (v) to flow downward (like a waterfall)
- 14. wealth , riches , prosperity ; great abundance , plenty