

Executive Branch CH. 13

Across

7. An amendment that permits the Vice President to become acting President if both the Vice President and the President's Cabinet determine the President as disabled.

8. A sudden, unpredictable, and potentially dangerous event requiring the president to play the role of crisis manager.

11. A group of presidential advisors not mentioned in the constitution, although every President has had one.

14. An office created in 1947 to coordinate the President's foreign and military policy advisors.

15. When a President signs a bill it becomes a _____.

17. An office that grew out of the Bureau of the budget, performs both managerial and budgetary functions.

18. The constitutional power of the President to send a bill back to congress with reasons of rejecting it.

19. The ability of Congress to override a presidential decision.

20. Who represents the legislative branch of our government?

Down

1. A law requiring Presidents to consult with Congress whenever possible prior to using military force.

2. The political equivalent of an indictment in criminal law, prescribed by the constitution.

3. With an impeachment, which group sits as court for hearing the case?

4. Occurs when voters cast their ballots for congressional candidates of the President's party because they support the President.

5. The amendment that limits Presidents to two terms of office.

6. An international agreement made by the executive branch of the US government without ratification by the Senate.

9. A veto taking place when congress adjourns within 10 days of submitting a bill to the President, who simply lets it die by neither signing it nor vetoing it.

10. A 3 member body appointment by the president to advise the president on economic policy.

12. Those already holding office. In congressional elections they usually win.

13. What does a bill spend most of its time in?

16. The events and scandal leading to the eventual resignation of President Nixon under the threat of impeachment.