

Name: _____

Poetic Devices

Across

2. Giving human characteristics to something that is inanimate.
3. A figure of speech in which someone or something is directly addressed even though they are not present.
10. A figure of speech that makes brief reference to a historical or literary figure, event or object.
11. When two words are placed side by side that contradict one another.
12. The repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words.

13. An extended form of metaphor in which objects, persons and actions in a narrative are equated with meanings that lie outside of the narrative itself.
14. The final consonants in a word agree but the vowels that precede them differ.
15. Compares two different things without using a word of comparison, such as "like" or "as".
16. Statement that seems to be a contradiction but on some level is true.

Down

1. When something is exaggerated.
4. Same or similar vowel sounds.
5. The use of words that sound very much like the noise they name.
6. In a situation, there is a difference between what is expected and what actually happens.
7. Makes a comparison between two things using "like" or "as".
8. Mental pictures, specific and vivid descriptions of visible objects and scenes.
9. Using an image to represent an idea or belief.