

Name: _____

Date: _____

Social Media

Across

3. Someone who produces a personal web log, in which they journal about their day or a topic.
 4. Launched in 2010 this online pinboard is mostly for collecting visual pieces of multimedia (mostly images)
 6. Abbreviation for the "Internet of Things"
 7. Telecommunications application software, specialises in providing video chat and voice calls between electronic devices via the Internet and to regular telephones.

10. If you've got a photo to share, this is the easiest and most fun place to post it. It's like Facebook, just without all the words.

11. Method of Social Media that sounds like a bird's song

12. A discussion or informational website published on the World Wide Web consisting of discrete, often informal diary-style text entries

Down

1. An online social media and social networking service founded in 2004 by Mark Zuckerberg and others

2. video-sharing website created by three former PayPal employees—Chad Hurley, Steve Chen, and Jawed Karim—in February 2005.

5. A commonly used applications which allow users to send messages (called tweets)

8. We use to do this with letters now we use the term for when we upload to the internet

9. What is the name of the symbol that precedes a word or phrase used on social media websites and applications, especially Twitter, to identify messages on a specific topic