

The Immune and Lymphatic System

Across

4. the (blank) system is a combination of body defences made up of cells, tissues, and organs
7. cells that can release chemicals that traps and kills other pathogens
10. the (blank) system cleans out the body using lymph and is responsible for creating and transporting leukocytes to the bloodstream
11. your body builds immunity by being exposed to (blank)

Down

1. what part of the body is responsible for the making of more blood cells
2. the immune system's non-specific response to foreign substances
3. surrounds and digests foreign organisms, dead cells, and debris
5. cells that fight of infection until leukocytes that can destroy it arrive
6. cells that respond when your immune system recognizes foreign molecules and memorizes past infections
8. tissue fluid that collects debris and is cleaned out later
9. white blood cells protect the body from (blank)

Word Bank

red bone marrow
b cells
pathogens

natural killer cells inflammation
immune

lymphatic
t cells
disease

lymph
white blood cells