

Name: _____

Date: _____

"To Build a Fire" Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. London uses this to describe how he felt when he realized his situation of life or death. (p.5)

5. A dent in an object. For example, the sled marks on the trail were described as this. (p.2)

11. A word used to describe something smaller in size, sound, or quality. (adjective) (p.1)

13. The cheeks of the dog. (p.1)

14. When the dog smelled the scent of death it made him? (still, hard) (p.6)

17. London described "the man" as this, since he was a new comer. (p.1)

19. Pushing outward; pushing away (p.1)

20. The man's thought of how cold it was outside kept repeating, but London described it as? (p.2)

21. London uses this word to describe "the man" and how he acts as if he is not concerned or showing any emotion. (adverb) (p.5)

24. Not normal (p.1)

25. A part of the dog's body (on the face); something to put over an animal's mouth to prevent it from eating or biting. (p.1)

Down

1. London uses this to describe the pain "the man" is experiencing. (p.2)

2. woods; trees (p.1)

4. The material on the match that you light. (p.5)

6. London uses this word to describe "the man's" tone of voice when he speaks to the dog; firm definite. (p.5)

7. A word that describes the importance of something. (adjective) (p.3)

8. This word was used to describe "the man's" German socks that covered half way up to his knee. (clothing) (p.4)

9. The main trail led 500 miles south to this and was once used by Chilcoat people. (p.1)

10. An action "the man" was going to do to the dog but realized he couldn't. Also known as to suffocate. (p.5)

12. London uses this to describe "the man's" beard with crystals on it; used for making jewelry with the colors yellow, orange, or brownish yellow fossil resin. (p.2)

15. can't be in physical contact (p.1)

16. London uses this word when "the man" has a fear of death; distressing or difficult to bear. (adjective) (p.5)

18. a wavelike form in appearance (p.1)

22. The meaning to go down. (p.3)

23. Something added with a greater importance or size; usually projecting a part of an animal or plant body that has less importance than a main part. (noun) (p.2)