

The Industrial Revolution and Westward Expansion

Across

1. _____ parts made repairs to machinery much easier
3. A successful Texas general and first president of the Republic of Texas
5. The steam locomotive was nicknamed _____
10. The Texas army took over this fort, but was then badly defeated by the Mexican Army
11. Mrs. Vander Ploeg's favorite student
16. The U.S. claimed that the Mexican-American border should be here
17. In 1834 this man made himself president of Mexico
18. Clinton's Ditch was a nickname for this
20. Person to discover gold in California
21. Prices of goods and services are determined by supply and

22. Many people moved to Oregon Territory for this
23. Texas became a U.S. state under this president
25. A main reason American settlers wanted to separate from Mexico was the issue of _____
26. The Erie Canal brought great growth to this city
27. One religious group that moved West to avoid persecution
28. Memorized the plans of the British spinning machine and brought it to America

Down

2. Many people traveled this route to the west
4. This invention helped American industry but also caused an increase in slavery

6. The 1948/49 movement west is often called this
7. In 1811, this linked the East with the West
8. The first steam boat was invented by _____
9. The treaty of _____ ended the war
12. This inventor made a new plow using an old steel saw
13. Built the first American power loom and began textile factories
14. Inventor of the cotton gin
15. This war lasted from 1846-1848
19. Travel over land or water became easier with the _____ engine
24. Women's skills such as _____ were in high demand