

Financial Aid Cross Word Puzzle

Across

3. An area of interest studied at the same time as a major; however, fewer courses are required.
8. The office at a college that is in charge of your financial aid, bills, and payments (HINT: It starts with the letter "b").
9. Generally, a student that is taking more than 12 credit hours of classes is considered to be a _____ student versus part time student.
11. The acronym for the amount of money a student and his/her family are expected to pay toward college expenses as determined by the FAFSA, also known as the Expected Family Contribution.
12. The type of loan where the U.S. Department of Education pays the interest while you are in college.
16. The name of the official document that your high school guidance counselor will send to your colleges that lists the classes that you have taken and your grades.
18. A kind of "gift aid" – financial aid that doesn't have to be paid back and that is usually awarded based on financial need.
19. If a student fails to repay a student loan on time, the student is in _____.
23. Type of college degree given if you complete four years of full-time study.
24. The person at a college who helps students decide what classes to take, what major to pursue, and that makes sure student have fulfilled all graduation requirements.
26. The name of the campus office that makes the decision about your acceptance to their school.
27. The legal document a student loan borrower must sign when he/she receives a loan. This document lists the terms for repayment of the loan, including interest.

Down

1. The type of loan where the U.S. Department of Education does NOT pay the interest while you are in college.
2. The total cost to attend college before financial aid, including tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and other living expenses (Hint: Acronym is "COA").
4. Colleges/universities that are ran and regulated by the state or federal government.
5. Federal loans that parents of undergraduate students can sometimes use to help pay for their child's college or career school.
6. One of the standardized tests that students generally take junior year of high school that is used by colleges to evaluate an applicant's academic skills and abilities.
7. The period of time following graduation when a student is NOT expected to start paying his/her loans back yet is known as a "_____ period."
10. Type of college degree earned if you complete two years of full-time study.
13. This type of college or university is NOT run by the state and is generally smaller and more expensive.
14. Federal grant program providing need-based grants to low-income students.
15. A program that allows students to take a part-time campus job as part of their financial aid package.
17. The name of Federal low-interest loans for eligible students to help cover the cost of college or career school (HINT: it starts with the letter "s").
20. The acronym for the application that you will fill out your senior year to apply for financial aid.
21. Your primary area of study chosen for college.
22. The general term for money you borrow from the government, a bank or another source that need to be paid back, usually over an agreed period of time.
25. What we wish grew on trees!!
28. The acronym for the report that a student receives after their FAFSA is processed. It is the report that is sent to your college, also known as a Student Aid Report.