

Hospitality and Tourism Chapter 10 Vocabulary

Across

1. A large building designed specifically to hold large meetings, conventions, and trade shows.
7. The whole idea of the lodging property or chain.
10. Consists of breakfast foods that do not need to be cooked.
15. Provides the highest level of amenities, service, room furnishings, public spaces, and technology.
18. A place that provides entertainment, recreation, and relaxation for vacationers.
19. Caters to the vacationer or leisure traveler.
20. A hotel accommodation that consists of more than one room.
22. A hotel staff member who helps guests make arrangements.

23. Is large and provides many services.
24. A private home offering one or more guest rooms.
25. Offers a medium level of service and midrange price.
26. Focuses on charging lower prices, which it is able to do by providing fewer services than a full-service hotel.

Down

2. Another way of saying 'Referral System'
3. The price actually charged to a guest for one night's lodging.
4. An inexpensive place to stay where sleeping rooms, bathrooms, and kitchen facilities are shared.
5. Includes a variety of accommodations that provide less personal service than a full-service hotel, but more than a motel.

6. An exhibit during which people show the goods and services they have to sell.
8. Designed to provide for the special needs of conventions and trade shows
9. A group of independent hotels that creates a central office for reservations and marketing.
11. The official rate for one night's lodging at a lodging property.
12. A lodging facility where 60% or more of the total occupancy is generated by conferences.
13. Another way of saying 'Referral System', plural is Consortia.
14. Have the lowest rates and least amount of service.
16. The day-to-day running of the hotel.
17. A room rate that includes meals.
21. The space where a trade show is held