Name: _____ Date: _____

Pressure Ulcers

Across

2. Persistent non-blanchable deep red, maroon or purple discoloration

4. Partial Loss of dermis indicated by a shallow open ulcer

6. Traumatic injuries caused by small mounts of pressure over a long period of time or by sliding over a surface.

8. Full thickness skin loss

9. Obscured full thickness skin and tissue loss. (unable to visualize the base of the wound.)

11. Full thickness skin and tissue loss

Down

1. Traumatic skin injury caused by opening of the skin from various external sources

3. Wounds that cause aching pain in the lower leg, irregular boarders, very shallow and often will weep fluid.

5. Wounds that are located on the lower legs or feet, pale in color, well defined boarders.

7. Often found in the peri area and buttocks.

10. Non-Blanchable reddness of intact skin

Word Bank

Stage 2	Arterial	Stage 3	Skin tear
Venous	IAD	Stage 4	Unstageable
Stage 1	Friction	Deep tissue injury	