

Name: _____

Canterbury Tales

Across

- 3. 4. wore a green hood, head like a nut.
6. 1. tunic embroidered with red and white flowers, a "ladies man", 20 years old.
7. 13. wore a motley tunic, had a forked beard, Flemish beaver cap.
11. 19. waxy, yellow hair that "hung like rat tails", bulging eyes, sold fake holy relics.
13. 17. thin, spends more on books than food. Thin horse.
14. 16. fat, bells on his saddle, a hunter, wore a gold pin and fur lined cloak.
16. 7. had white beard, red face, loved expensive food and wine.

- 18. 14. had 5 husbands, wore red stockings, attractive, slightly deaf.
19. 3. a poor man made rich by God's work, kind and soft spoken.
20. 6. gave the impression of being busier than he was, wore a multi-colored coat.

Down

- 1. 9. old, thin, cranky, mean to his workers, stole from his master.
2. 20. large, strong fellow, red beard, black nostrils, loud, told dirty stories.
4. 15. an accomplished sailor, not a nice man, wore a dagger on a lanyard.

- 5. 18. wore blood red and blue striped garment; had a love of gold; sly dealings with apothecaries.
8. 11. frugal man, outwits his masters
9. 8. red faced covered with carbuncles, drank until he was hazy, smelled of garlic and onions.
10. 5. the Parson's brother, a farmer, honest worker.
12. 10. a prioress, concerned with manners, wide forehead.
15. 2. a perfect gentleman, modest, stained tunic
17. 12. keeps gifts in his pocket for pretty girls, knew tavern keepers and barmaids well.