

Name: _____

Date: _____

Building Vocabulary

Across

1. load bearing cross members, timber or steel

5. A mixture of sand, stone and a major component of concrete

10. sheet metal or other material used waterproofing roof or wall

11. detailed written instructions of building work to be done

13. exterior

weather-resistant surface of the building

14. parallel beams of timber, concrete, or steel for supporting floors or ceilings

15. a manufactured gypsum plaster panel

Down

2. metal angle iron that brick rests on

3. The process in installing glass

4. to restore to a previous or better condition

6. The end, upper, triangular area of a home

7. a pipe, usually metal, for carrying rainwater down from the roof's horizontal gutters

8. part of the roof that extends out over the walls

9. a wall that supports any vertical load in addition to its own weight

12. space behind a wall cladding