

Name: _____

Date: _____

Key Financial Literacy Terms:

Across

2. the costs that make up one unit of what you sell
 3. the amount of money borrowed
 6. this type of credit requires little documentation; decisions are almost immediate and interest rates are very high
 9. a determination of how many units you have to sell in order to pay for all fixed cost
 10. debt from a bank
 13. funds contributed by investors to a business
 14. something of value

15. the money a person borrows to buy real estate
 16. a person or company with sufficient liquidity who guarantees to repay a loan if a company cannot
 17. expenditures on equipment the business will use for many years
 18. the date a loan is due
 19. other types of debt other than a mortgage

Down

1. equipment, inventory or other goods that are pledged to the bank in case a company can't make a loan payment

4. unit price minus the cost of goods sold

5. investors who make small investments in an enterprise
 7. the right to take possession of collateral until a debt is repaid
 8. the act of making a business different
 11. the 12 month period a company uses to report financial results
 12. cost that do not vary based on the units sold by your enterprise

Word Bank

Differentiation
 Notes Payable Mortgage
 Collateral

BreakevenAnalysis
 AngelInvestors
 CostofGoodsSold
 FixedCost

Credit
 FiscalYear
 OnlineCredit
 Lien

maturity
 ContributionMargin
 Capital
 Loan

Principle
 Guarantor
 Assets