Name: _____ Date: _____

Spelling - Lesson 9

Across

2. adj. preferred or recommended: v. felt or showed approval or preference for

4. v. sliding, typically sideways, on slippery ground or as a result of stopping or turning too quickly

6. n. the work of a person in fashion; v. using (especially a system or procedure) as an example to follow or imitate

14. v. liked (one thing/person) better than another or others; tended to choose

15. adj. restricted in size, amount, or extent; few, small, or short

16. adj. done with great effort and difficulty; v. worked hard; made great effort

17. v. diminished or reduced or caused to diminish or reduce in thickness toward one end

18. v. regarded with great respect

19. v. giving authorization or consent to (someone) to do something

21. v. was the same as in number or amount; was equivalent to

23. adj. fashionable; trendy; n. an event or occurence

24. v. marked with a blemish on the skin or within body tissue where a wound, burn, or sore has not healed

25. adj. suitable or appropriate under the circumstances; right or proper; n. a small part on a piece of furniture

Down

1. n. the action of thinking about something in a logical, sensible way

3. v. forgave or excused (a person, error, or offense)

5. v. left out or excluded (someone or something), either intentionally or forgetfully

7. v. confessed to be true or to be the case, typically with reluctance

8. v. (of a person) trembled convulsively, typically as a result of fear or revulsion

9. v. acting as a teacher to (a single student or a very small group)

10. v. discarded or removed from service (a retired, old, or inoperative vehicle, vessel, or machine)

11. v. failing to remember; ceasing to think of or consider

12. v. (of something wet or greasy) shining; glittering

13. v. deserved or was worthy of (something, especially reward, punishment, or attention)

20. v. supplied with the necessary items for a particular purpose

22. v. occurring again, periodically, or repeatedly;