

Economics: Chapter 3 Vocabulary

Across

3. Resources that cannot replace themselves are _____.
9. The science that deals with relationships between living things and the environment.
10. The careful management and protection of valuable natural resources to ensure their quality and longevity.
11. Energy sources formed in the earth, such as coal, oil and natural gas.

12. The ability to inform and assist others.

13. The process by which a foreign-born person becomes a citizen.

Down

1. Resources that replace themselves by natural cycles over time, such as plants, water, soil and air.
2. The deliberate destruction of property (graffiti, broken windows, defaced restrooms, etc.)

4. Substances that can decompose naturally in the environment.

5. The way you respond to being a member of a community or other group.

6. The theft of merchandise from stores.

7. A person who offers services to a worthwhile cause for no pay.

8. Guidelines for human behavior based on principles about what is right and wrong.