

Name: _____

Printmaking

Across

2. What is the name of the rolling tool that is used to transfer the ink onto the linoleum block surface?

5. What is the term to describe the copy of an image that is created from the inked linoleum block pressed onto paper?

7. What is another name used for a linoleum print?

8. What material is used to spread the ink onto with a brayer before applying it to the lino block?

11. What is the name of the tools used to carve thick & thin lines on a linoleum block?

12. In printmaking artwork, what is used to create the outline and all details of the image?

13. What is the term used to call the multiple prints created from the 1 original image?

Down

1. Editions are displayed in _____ under the artwork to display the order each print was created.

3. What is a art technique allows an artist to created several copies of the same image by coating a carved surface with ink and transferring the inked impression on to paper?

4. What is the name of the material that is carved into when creating a print?

6. When a print is created, the image on the linoleum block will be a _____ appearance once it is printed onto the paper.

9. What material is used to cover the surface of a linoleum block with a brayer?

10. What is a type of sculpture that remains attached to a surface and projects outward?

Word Bank

ink

relief

Editions

plexiglass

linoleum block

print

Printmaking

reversed

Fractions

lines

Gouges

Lino print

brayer