

Wuthering Heights Crossword

Across

3. The servant who is the main narrator of events throughout the novel.
 5. The pseudonym Emily Brontë published Wuthering Heights under due to the dislike of female writers at the time.
 7. The hypocritical and religiously zealous servant at Wuthering Heights.
 8. The supernatural things Lockwood sees in a dream, and a boy sees on the moors at the end of the novel.
 9. A period of two weeks.
 11. He is Isabella and Heathcliff's son, but Heathcliff only wants to use him in his plans of revenge by making Cathy Jr. marry him.
 12. The historic county in Northern England where Wuthering Heights takes place.
 16. Heathcliff's main purpose when he returns wealthy to Wuthering Heights.
 17. Hindley's son who is uneducated and turned into a field labourer due to Heathcliff's hatred toward his father.
 18. The name of the women who find themselves in a love triangle in two different generations.

23. The term used to describe Heathcliff due to his skin color, which is used to describe a member of a traveling people who survive off trade and things such as fortune telling.
 24. Hindley's wife who dies shortly after giving birth to Hareton.
 25. The byronic hero of the novel who has a destructive love for Cathy Sr.

Down

1. The closest town between Wuthering Heights and Thrushcross Grange where the doctor and parson resides.
 2. Cathy Sr.'s brother who is Heathcliff's main target for revenge when he returns to Wuthering Heights.
 4. The main setting of the book where Cathy Sr. and Heathcliff grew up together.
 6. The contrasting setting to Wuthering Heights where the Lintons lived.
 10. The first narrator of the novel who is a socially awkward outsider who moves into Thrushcross Grange.
 13. Another word for church that was used at the time in the novel.

14. A popular writing style during the Victorian Era that focused on the feeling of strong emotions rather than thinking.
 15. Cathy Sr.'s husband who is higher class than Heathcliff, but weaker.
 19. The author of Wuthering Heights.
 20. Edgar's sister and Heathcliff's wife who is the only character to escape the events at Wuthering Heights and die elsewhere.
 21. The place where Heathcliff and Cathy Sr. always run off together to be free. The natural barrier between Wuthering Heights and Thrushcross Grange.
 22. The weather that can turn the moors into a deadly place to travel.

Word Bank

Lockwood
 Ellis Bell
 Hareton
 Kirk
 Yorkshire

Heathcliff
 Frances
 Catherine
 Ghosts
 Moors

Edgar
 Thrushcross Grange
 Emily Brontë
 Gypsy
 Linton

Gimmerton
 Romanticism
 Snow
 Fortnight
 Nelly

Joseph
 Hindley
 Wuthering Heights
 Isabella
 Revenge