

Name: _____

Date: _____

Week 9 vocabulary

Across

5. The type or class of a work, usually categorized by form, technique, or content
6. the main point or underlying direction of a peice of writing. makes the reader ask a question that willbe answered by reading more or helps the reader understand the author's purpose for writing the essay
7. combine elements and parts to form a coherent whole
8. link sentences and paragraphs together smoothly so that there are no abrupt jumps or breaks between ideas
9. the story is told through the point of view of a single character and is limited to what he or she experiences

10. a statement or premise supported by arguments; the subject or theme of a speech or composition

Down

1. the author's primary aim in a piece of writing.
Ex: narrate, argue, review, explain, examine
2. to reduce large sections of text to their essential points and main ideas
3. The intended target group for a message regardless of the medium
4. a type of informational text that is written with the intent to explain the steps in the procedure