

Name: _____

Date: _____

Fibres to Fabrics

Across

2. Examples of _____ fibres are viscose and acetate
6. Animal sources include _____ and silk
11. Cotton grows in _____, moist climates
12. Flax grows in _____, damp climates
15. Examples of synthetic fibres are _____ and acrylic
18. _____ fibres come from plant and animal sources
19. Manufactured fibres are created from a _____ of raw materials
20. plant sources include cotton and _____

Down

1. _____ describes the thickness of manufactured fibres
3. When cotton & polyester are mixed together _____ is created
4. linen comes from the _____ plant
5. Wool is the most common _____ fibre used
7. Silk is produced from a _____
8. when wool is cleaned and combed it is called _____
9. Cotton comes from _____
10. The worms spin _____ of silk
13. Regenerated fibres contain _____ because they come from plants
14. Undesirable properties of cotton are _____, not very stretchy, burns easily & shrinks
16. Printing means applying colour and _____ to one side of the fabric only
17. Wool is used to make household products such as blankets, _____ and rugs

