

Chapter 2

Across

2. was the first botherder to receive a lengthy federal prison sentence
5. network of zombie (bot-infected) computer;
6. what other computer worm made headlines in the news in 2003
9. Eyewitness testimony is an example of
10. involves the use of computers and/or related technology with the intention of causing harm or damage in order to coerce a civilian population

Down

1. can be an accidental aspect of the commission of the crime and might contain information about the crime
3. consists of software that enables the remote monitoring of a computer user's activities or information on an individual's computer where this software has been installed
4. a crime in which someone, via email, threatens to attack an individual, business, organization if money is not provided to prevent the attack
7. social networking sites such as facebook, Myspace, and Twitter have also made the burglar's job much
8. is a crime that occurs when someone uses the Internet, email, or other forms of communication to intentionally annoy, attack, alarm, or otherwise bother another person.
11. Computer hijacking occurs when an individual takes control over a computer (or computers), with a

Word Bank

easier computers botnet

Cyberstalking Cyberextortion technology

Jeanson James Blaster Worm
direct evidence

spyware Cyberterrorism
bot code