

Chapter 13 Technology for Instruction

Across

4. a learning situation in which the teacher and student are not in the same location

8. allows some use of copyrighted material for educational purposes

11. specific policies regarding use of computers by student

12. a learning situation in which students complete assignments, participate in discussion boards, and may even take exams online.

13. inquiry-based learning projects utilizing information from preselected websites

14. a technique for combining several forms for media to express an idea

Down

1. the body of exclusive rights granted by laws of the United States to copyright owners for protection of their work

2. a real example that shows the characteristics of excellence, helps students know what constitutes quality.

3. was coined to describe the application of technology to enhance teaching, learning, and assessment.

5. which connects to a computer and projector to allow the board to become an extended computer touch screen

6. those that exist only online

7. the use of someone else's original words or ideas without giving that person credit

9. a school that has passed a quality assessment

10. all students online for class at the same time