

Hurricane Terms

Across

1. a rise in the ocean as the result of strong winds from a hurricane or other intense storm
2. an imaginary circle around the Earth, halfway between the North and South Poles.
6. Motion goes in a circle in the opposite direction from the way a clock moves
10. a line on a weather map that represents constant barometric (air) pressure.
12. A powerful, rotating storm that forms over warm oceans near the equator in the Ocean.
13. a prediction of future weather made by meteorologists.

16. when a hurricane first goes over land.

18. long bands of rain clouds that seem to spiral into the eyewall

19. a narrow, powerful wind that flows high the atmosphere (in the upper troposphere).

20. A weather instrument that measures wind speed. Atlantic Ocean The Atlantic Ocean is a large body of salt water that separates the Americas from Europe and

Down

3. a closed, rotating wind.

4. Hurricane winds blow in a spiral around the calm, roughly circular center called the _____.

5. a large body of salt water that separates the Americas from Europe and Africa.

7. a tornado that passes over water

8. a unit of measurement of an angle

9. a spinning flow of air

11. device that measures air pressure.

14. device that detects objects at a distance (like hurricanes) using radio waves. RADAR stands for "Radio Detecting And Ranging."

15. a tropical cyclone that forms in the Western Pacific Ocean

17. a current of air that is flowing upwards.