

Name: _____

Date: _____

Digital Footprint

Across

2. online world of computer networks and electronic communication, especially the Internet

6. Software installed on people's computers without their knowledge that tracks computer use and creates pop-up ad

10. buzzword used to describe any content or media that becomes widely shared through social networks and online

12. act of intentionally pretending to be someone else online, for example using a fake name to post information

14. collection of settings and information about a user

15. belittling, offensive, or insulting

16. online journal or diary

Down

1. illegal use of someone else's personal information, usually to obtain money or credit

3. use of a Web site to connect with friends or people who share personal or professional interests

4. data trail, including personal information, created by a person's activities online

5. lasting a long time, if not forever, such as information that one posts online that does not go away because it can be shared and passed on

7. text files that collect and store information on a computer's hard drive

8. possible or potential (related to: college admission or employment)

9. saying something mean to embarrass someone online

11. bullying that takes place over digital devices (like a cellphone)

13. public image or personality someone adopts when s/he is online