

Excel Crossword

Across

- 4. A box formed when a row and column intersect one another.
- 5. A text that is not able to be used to calculate
- 7. A position that will change the text depending on direction selected.
- 8. Numbers that can be used to calculate
- 10. Adding all the numbers you have selected.

- 12. A group of horizontal cells represented by numbers
- 13. A formula used for a cell reference
- 14. representation of its value; pie, line, column, bar
- 15. A book of the related worksheets you have selected

Down

- 1. A command built in which can be used to make mathematical procedures; addition, multiplication, and rounding

- 2. To copy and add to the adjacent cell.
- 3. A chart that shows a part to a whole.
- 6. A chart that uses columns to represent it.
- 9. The arranging of numbers/text in order
- 11. A chart that uses lines to represent it.