

Sociology Chapter 5

Across

3. She distinguished between the two types of societies by the nature of their social solidarity.
8. When the roles in a single status are conflicting.
12. A behavior that individuals can expect from others.
14. A particular society where food is obtained primarily by raising and caring for domesticated or tamed animals
15. The social map for various group situations
17. Position that is earned or chosen
19. Boy, girl, blonde, and blue eyed are all examples of...

20. A type of social unity in which members' interdependence is based on specialized functions and statuses.

Down

1. A key feature of pastoral societies.
2. Society that hunts and gather food, usually nomadic.
4. A society that is dependent on science and technology to produce basic goods and services.
5. In this society the emphasis is on providing services and information rather than producing goods
6. All of the statuses that a person occupies at any particular time.
7. The process of influencing each other as people relate.

9. Means community in German

10. A position that most strongly affects other aspects of a person's life.

11. An expected behavior associated with a particular status.

13. Means society in German

16. Helps us define who and what we are in relation to others within the same social structure.

18. People who interact in such a way as to share a common culture.

Word Bank

Rights	Achieved status	Status set	Social interaction
Technical Knowledge	Gesellschaft	Ascribed status	Status
Industrial society	Solidarity	Master status	Gemeinschaft
Social structure	Pastoral	Role	Society
Hunting and Gathering society	Emile Durkheim	Role strain	Postindustrial society