

Alcohol Facts & Definitions

Across

2. _____ is a drink that contains a certain amount of ethanol.
4. Uncomfortable physical symptoms caused by drinking too much alcohol can be known as a _____.
8. Drinking a large amount of alcohol in a short period of time is known as _____ drinking.
9. A person's _____, describes the percentage of alcohol in a person's blood.
11. Enable means to _____.
14. Once alcohol is consumed, it stays in the body until the liver can break down, or _____ the alcohol.

15. Physical or mental dependence on a drug is known as _____.
16. You may be charged with a _____ or Driving Under the Influence if you drink alcohol and then drive.
17. Giving an alcoholic beverage to an alcoholic is an example of _____.
18. Alcohol is a _____, or type of drug that slows down the central nervous system.

Down

1. _____ is a chemical compounds that is the active ingredient in an alcoholic drinks.
3. The process of completely withdrawing from alcohol is called _____.

5. _____ is when a person is dependent upon alcohol.
6. _____ occurs when users who are dependent on a drug stop taking it.
7. _____ is a state of relaying on or being controlled by something or someone.
10. Alcohol can negatively impact the cerebral _____, which controls thought process and consciousness.
12. _____ is the build up of scar tissue in the liver.
13. The _____ control automatic functions in the body, such as breathing and consciousness.