

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

S.S. Vocab. The Roman Republic 8.2

Across

2. A brilliant Carthaginian general that led a force through modern-day Spain and the Alps to invade and almost conquer Rome
5. at type of Roman magistrate that would administer justice
9. Rome's elected officials
11. common people; lacked political power
12. A brilliant Carthaginian general that led a force through modern-day Spain and the Alps to invade and almost conquer Rome
13. allowed for all Roman citizens to vote and listen to what laws are being passed
16. Phoenician colony in Northern Africa; home to Hannibal Barca
18. Famous Roman general who gained support politically from his Roman soldiers; was tribune seven times
19. 200 years of peace; first years of the Roman Empire; Rome had a stable government and a well-run army

20. the two most powerful magistrates in Rome

22. Rome's written laws

24. A series of wars against Carthage

25. politicians that fought to make life better for the lower classes; such as making the government provide the military equipment, no man under 17 could be conscripted. One of them was killed by chairs because people thought he was trying to become a tyrant

Down

1. rulers with almost absolute power

3. powerful nobles; controlled most of the political power

4. a method to balance power in the government; kept each branch of the government accountable to each other

6. the legendary founders of Rome, whom Rome was named after

7. people elect leaders to govern them; established to keep one person from being too powerful for the government

8. a council of wealthy and powerful Romans that advised the city's leaders

10. became dictator after forcefully taking power in Rome; gave more power to the Senate

14. the center of life in ancient Rome; means "public place"; most government buildings and temples were located there

15. An epic that tells the origin of ancient Rome

17. elected by the plebeians; had the power to veto; elected yearly

21. a gladiator that led a slave rebellion against Rome's leaders; once he died the rebellion fell apart

23. An ancient civilization located on the northern part of the Italian peninsula that greatly influenced the Ancient Romans