

Name: _____

Date: _____

All about Strokes

Across

3. the B in BE FAST stands for
 5. type of stroke that occurs when blood vessel in the brain breaks leaking blood into the brain
 9. the lobe of the brain that is responsible for emotions, judgements and impulse control
 12. inability to recognize and interpret objects, people, sounds, or smells despite intact primary sense organs
 13. lobe of the brain associated with language processing
 16. treat _____, as it may mimic stroke symptoms
 17. stroke patient teaching must be _____ to the patient's risk factors for stroke

19. stroke is the _____ leading cause of death in the US

20. stroke patients must remain _____ until passing a dysphagia screen
 21. Any patient with a _____ higher than 100, should be placed on a statin
 22. a bulging formation on the artery, usually caused by hypertension or excessive amount of fatty deposits

Down

1. medication that should be prescribed for any stroke patient with history of or with current atrial fibrillation
 2. _____ and stroke can occur together or in close proximity
 4. slurred speech
 6. leading preventable stroke risk factor

7. hardening and thickening of the walls of the arteries

8. responsible for basic life functioning (breathing, HR, and BP)
 10. inability to communicate ideas in written language not due to mechanical dysfunction; typically results from damage to the parietal lobe
 11. type of stroke that occurs when arteries are blocked by blood clots or by the gradual build up of plaque
 14. lobe of the brain associated with visual processing
 15. incontinence
 18. inability to speak