

Unit 3: Birth and Newborn

Across

2. Open space in baby's head where bones have not joined
 4. A rating system, tests a newborn's physical conditions
 6. Narrow outer end of the uterus.
 7. When individuals form a close relationship.
 11. Assisting a pregnant female in giving birth.
 12. Time for mother after the baby is born
 15. First form of milk produced after childbirth
 16. The process of childbirth.

17. A doctor who concentrated on the care of children.
 18. Umbilical cord, placenta, and amniotic sac that is delivered after the baby.
 19. Non-medically trained, helps deliver babies
 20. A birth canal, allows the baby to be delivered.
 21. An arrangement that allows the newborn baby to sleep alongside its mother in her hospital room rather than in a nursery.

Down

1. This type of birth can be done when a vaginal birth is not safe for the baby or the mother's health or life.

3. Muscle walls of uterus working to expel the baby
 5. Used to help a baby make its way to the birth canal if its having trouble.
 8. Medically trained, helps deliver babies
 9. The cervix stretching. A doctor uses this to know when a women is about to have her baby.
 10. An infant that is born three weeks before the due date, weighs less than 5 pounds and 8 ounces.
 13. A doctor who concentrated on childbirth and pregnancy.
 14. The period of the child after the birth

Word Bank

Fontanels
 Postnatal
 Apgar Scale
 Afterbirth
 Forceps

Postpartum
 Cervix
 Uterine Contractions
 Premature Infant

Bonding
 Deliver
 Cesarean Birth
 Rooming-in

Nurse-midwife
 Obstetrician
 Lay-midwife
 Colostrum

Vagina
 Dilation
 Pediatrician
 Labor