

Occupational Health and Safety Week

Across

3. Things that should be followed in order to stay safe
7. Hand protection needed when working with food, patients, etc.
8. Someone who works closely with you on a day-to-day basis and makes sure you follow safety rules
14. Workplace _____ Materials Information System
16. What you do frequently to your hands to protect yourself and others

18. Helps you learn the policies, rules, and procedures to help do your job safely

Down

1. A biological hazard often found in hospitals
2. Hearing protection needed when working in loud environments
4. It is your _____ to work safety and report hazards
5. _____ Health and Safety Act
6. To avoid a serious shock, this should never be mixed with water

9. Minor injury that can result from lifting heavy items

10. Head protection

11. Eye protection when working in environments with splatter or particles that could injure your eyes

12. What you do when you don't understand instructions or if you think your work is unsafe

13. " _____ is better than cure" (saying)

15. Something dangerous that could hurt you

17. keeps you protected from harmful particles in the air