

Date: _____

[illegible]

4. To hold out, to unbend, to stretch or spread out. To offer
6. To hold back from activity by choice. Or to hold back from voting.
7. To hold or to have within
9. A holder of land rights. A person who holds the right to live in a residence. An occupant.
10. Someone that hold something else in, or a device that holds something in

1. A period of time in which someone is held back, or a form of punishment by holding someone after school hours.
2. To hold back, to delay, to keep from proceeding
3. Holding back on the final decision. uncertain, hesitant, not fully agreed upon.
5. A band of tough fibrous tissues that holds a muscle to a bone.
8. Legal ownership of an invention held by the creator. Exclusive right or ownership.