

At the Golf Course

Across

2. The center, short-mown portion of a golf hole in between the teeing ground and the green
 3. When a right-handed player strikes the ball such that it curves sharply from left to right
 7. The degree or angle of the face of the club
 12. A score of one less than par

13. A low-trajectory, short golf shot typically made from just off the green
 14. A person who is hired to carry a player's bag and clubs from hole to hole on the golf course.

Down

1. A score of two under par
 4. Using the golf stroke to roll the ball on the green
 5. Slang term for having sunk a putt

6. In casual play, a "do-over" shot made to replace a poorly hit shot, taken without counting the stroke toward the score
 8. A type of club with a steep loft used for hitting a high soft-landing shot
 9. Slang term for a sand bunker
 10. A numerical representation of a golfer's playing ability
 11. A shot that is hit towards the green or towards the hole